THE COMET

ALMA MATER

Dear Central High School
We thy children bring to thee,
Our best ambitions, love and charity,
In thy halls of learning
We will strive to do our best,
As we search for knowledge
Preparing for life's test.

Chorus:
Central, Dear Central
Loyal hearts pledge faith to thee,
Central Alma Mater,
True we will always be.

Dear to thy students
Central High thy name will hold,
Proud of thy glory
By us all foretold.
Though we soon might leave thee,
Our thoughts will return,
And throughout our lives
For guidance yearn.

DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1961, wish to dedicate our yearbook, "The Comet," to Mr. Percy Klock. He has been teaching at Mannsville since 1939.

With Mr. Klock's unselfish and wonderful guidance we, the Seniors, have reached our goal.

We wish to thank him very sincerely for what he has done for us and will continue to do for others in the future.

The Class of 1961

RECOGNITION OF

TO THE "CLASS OF 1961"

It is with sincere humility and honor that I received your request for a few words in your behalf.

In my new position I find that the relationship between the students and myself is rather impersonal. I must confess that having been in the classroom holds very precious memories, especially with the "Class of 61". We experienced serious learning situations and lighter moments together which indicates to me that you will be successful as a class on June 26, 1961, and definitely successful individually in the future.

Thank you and good luck,

Harold R. Wiley

Harold R. Wiley

IN MEMORY OF

The class of 1961 wishes to edit this issue of the Comet to Kenneth Tousley, who graduated from the kindergarten in 1959.

Kenneth was born in Syracuse, New York on May 9, 1953.

SUPERINTENDENT

EARL E. CHISAMORE

TO THE "CLASS OF 61"

What should one say to Seniors? Naturally you are happy because you have completed one phase of your education. Congratulations are in order on your success in attaining a goal. Does this graduation represent in every case the highest endeavor on the part of every member? Let us hope that everyone has learned to apply himself to every task which is assigned, and to continue to strive until the assignment has been completed. Let us hope that all have learned that success only comes through genuine effort. If everyone really has learned this lesson and appreciates the blessings of our form of government, where one can make a choice as to the future, the future of everyone will be most promising.

Again, Congratulations!

Sincerely yours,
EARL E. CHISAMORE

PRINCIPAL

DONALD E. EASTHAM

TO THE SENIOR

Learning is a continuous, personal life process. Significant at each milestone is an ever present desire to want to learn and become an increasingly responsible, self-disciplined individual, who stands for his convictions but respects the rights, strengths and weaknesses of others.

America has been made great by men of initiative who acted positively and creatively, recognized their potentialities and bent every effort to develop them, were firm in their belief of the dignity and inherent worth of each man, and who freely accepted responsibility for their decisions, successes and failures.

At this point, hearty congratulations. May wise choices lead you to future self realization, development and the strengthening of a free society.

Class History

In September of 1948 a group of boys and girls started school under the guidance of Miss Barker. Seven of our graduating class have been together through our thirteen years of school. They are: Helen Abbott, Wayne Allen, Bonnie Brown, Ronald Jacobs, Donald McKone, Nancy Stewart, and Gayle Pelton.

During the elementary years we gained and lost many pupils. In the first grade Elizabeth Fone joined us; in the fourth, John Clement; and in the fifth grade we gained Sargent Frappier, Maynard Gillard, and Leonard Schryver. Arlene Kellogg joined our merry group in the sixth grade with Charles Thomson in the seventh. The eighth grade was where we got a large addition to our class. They were: Nancy Loomis, Elmo Loomis, Jesse Porter, and Larry Shultz. In our junior year Lou Deemer entered our group to complete our class.

The next September we found our class in high school enjoying all the wonderful privileges we had looked forward to. During these last four years, we have had dances, parties, movies, and other interesting activities. We will always remember the Junior Prom, our Junior and Senior Plays, assembling this yearbook, and the ultimate goal--the trip to New York City during our Easter Vacation.

We wish to thank all the teachers who have worked so faithfully these twelve years with us. Their teachings are priceless, for no one can take them from us. We give special thanks to Mrs. Joyner, Mrs. Cady, Mr. Dunn, Miss Crahan, and Mr. Smith, who have been our class advisors the last four years. To them we all give a special note of thanks!

The Class of 1961

Last Will and Testament...

Elizabeth leaves her neatness and quiet manner to Pennie VanBrocklin.

Maynard and Helen leave their ability to get along with each other to Neil Broadhurst and Margaret McNitt.

John leaves his ability to fool around in Science to Mary Downey.

Wayne leaves his ability to watch out the window and have a girl in every town to Karl Fowler.

Sarge leaves his flirting ways and ability to get out of anything he can, to Ronnie Shultz.

Ronnie leaves his curly hair and red face to Cheryl Miller.

Nancy Loomis leaves her ability to have long hair and run fast to Joyce Young.

Elmo leaves his ability to never get anything done in Art and faint in Science to Barbara Sampson.

Arlene leaves her ability to just about fall asleep in any class to Diane Burns, who we feel could use a little sleep.

Rick leaves his ability to date girls and still act so shy, to Richard Chatterton.

Larry leaves his ability to get along well with all the girls and take a full picture to Karen Shultz.

Brenda leaves her reassuring ways and calm manner to Pat Hagan, who needs it.

Nancy Stewart leaves her talkativeness in class meetings and dancing ability to Nancy Brown.

Gayle leaves her cute well-mannered but sneaky ways and ability to be in the wrong place at the right time to Sue Baldwin.

Bonnie leaves her ability to change boys so quickly and shyly so that no one knows about it to Eveline Young.

Don leaves his ability to get along with the teachers and a certain Freshman to Jack Cheney.

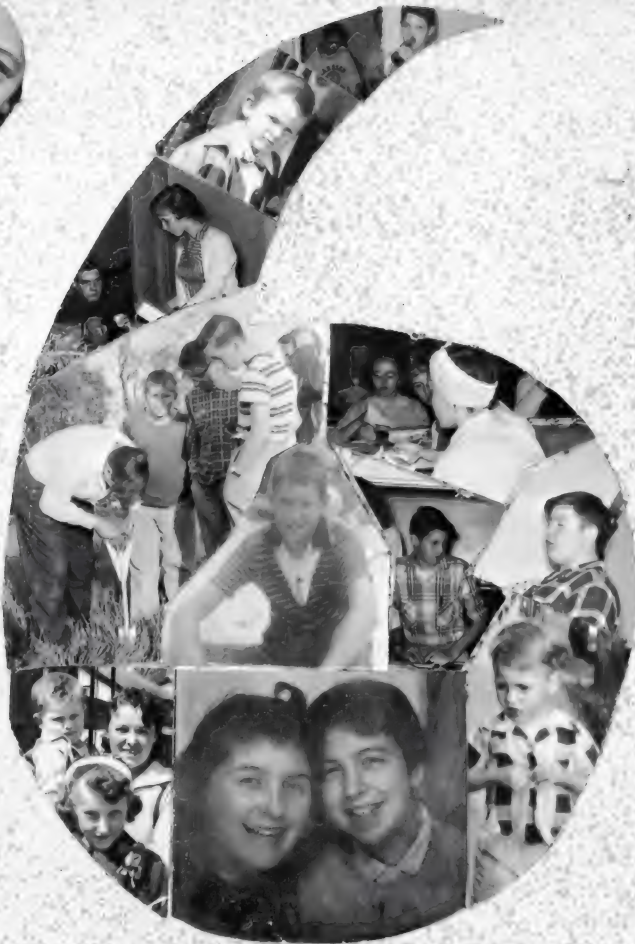

Lou leaves her ability to always be doing the wrong thing, and liking the wrong boys to anyone in the Junior Class that can use it.

Jess leaves his ability to go to the Brook and cute dancing steps to his sister, Carol.

Chuck leaves his ability to write "books" in History Class and love the opposite sex to Judy England.

To the Faculty: The seniors leave their ability to get along with the student body, which we feel might help them. If not, maybe our leaving will.
